From Tuesday September 21. to Saturday September 25. 1725.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 23d Day of September, 1725.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

It was this Day ordered by their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council, that the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the 30th of this Inſtant September, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the 11th Day of November next.

Turin, Sept. 19. N. S. The King of Sardinia and the Prince of Piedmont arrived the 17th Inſtant at Night at the Veneria, in good Health, on their Return from their Progreſs in Savoy. They found there the Queen and the Princeſs, who went thither eight Days ago. It is thought the Court will continue at the Veneria till the Chriſtmas Holidays.

Madrid, Sept. 17, N. S. The King has been pleaſed to grant to the Marqueſs de Monteleon the Continuation of his Appointments as Ambaſſadour, during his Stay here. To-Morrow he ſets out for St. Ildefonſo, to thank his Majeſty for that Favour: It is thought that he will ſoon be ſent Ambaſſadour to ſome Court. The Prince de Mazerano, an Italian Nobleman, and Captain of the Halberdiers at this Court, has obtained Leave of his Majeſty to go to Italy for ſome Time. His Catholick Majeſty has declared his Determination that the Contractation-Houſe and Commerce for the Weſt-Indies ſhall be removed from Cadiz to Seville; and has alſo appointed Don Joſeph Varas Preſident of the ſaid Contractation-Houſe at Seville, in the Room of Don Joſeph Patino Superintendant of the Spaniſh Marine, who had the ſaid Preſidentſhip at Cadiz. After the Marqueſs de Grimaldo went to St. Ildefonſo, the two Portugueſe Miniſters likewiſe went to Segovia, in order to be near the Court for carrying on (through the Hands of the ſaid Marqueſs) the Negotiation of the intended Marriages, between the Prince of Aſturias and the Infanta of Portugal, and between the Prince of Brazil and the Infanta of Spain. Three Days after the Arrival of the ſaid Marqueſs at St. Ildefonſo, he was again taken ill, ſo as to be obliged to keep his Bed; but he is now much better. The Marqueſs de Caſtelar is likewiſe recovered of his late Indiſpoſition. One M. Wolters a Swede, who was formerly in England, and came hither for Fiſhing for the Wrecks at Vigo, has obtained a Grant from his Catholick Majeſty for opening the famous Silver and Gold Mines of Guadalcanal, Rio Tinto, Cazalla, Aracena, and Galaroſa, in the Provinces of Andaluſia and Eſtremadura; and is now taking in Subſcriptions for putting his Project in Execution. Letters from Alicant ſay, that the Marqueſs de Mari was to ſail with his Squadron for Cadiz.

September 25, 1725.

Richard Godfrey, Eſq; one of the Maſters of the High Court of Chancery, having ſince the printing of his former Account and Poſt-Account delivered in a further Poſt-Account carried to the 31ſt of July 1725 incluſive; and it appearing that the ſaid Mr. Godfrey is greatly deficient in the Caſh and Securities of the Suitors of the ſaid Court; Notice is hereby given, that the ſaid further Poſt-Account is printed, and that Printed Copies thereof are now put up in the Maſter's publick Office, and in the Regiſter's and Six Clerk's Offices, to the Intent that all Perſons concern'd may, if there are any Errors, or Defects therein, apply to the Court of Chancery in or before next Michaelmas Term for Directions concerning the ſame.

Treaſury-Chambers, Sept. 23.

The Perſon who ſubſcribed a Letter directed to the Right Honourable the Chancellour of the Exchequer, with the Letters B. F. alſo the Perſon who ſubſcribed another Letter, directed in the ſame Manner, with the Letters E. J. may attend the ſaid Chancellour of the Exchequer at his Houſe at Chelſea, any Day before Eight a-Clock in the Morning.

Whereas divers Perſons are travelling about in many Parts of the Kingdom, under the Pretence of collecting Charity Money for the Sufferers by Fire at the Town of Buckingham and other Places, by printed Letters, pretended to be ſigned by Juſtices of the Peace, and others, and particularly by the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the ſaid Town of Buckingham; which printed Letters have been delivered to the Miniſters and Church-Wardens of many Pariſhes in ſeveral of the Counties of England: Theſe are therefore to give Notice to all Juſtices of the Peace, and to all Miniſters, Church-Wardens, and others to whom ſuch Perſons ſhall come with ſuch printed Letters, that they do not receive the ſame, or collect any Money thereon, for that ſuch Collections, under the Pretence of Letters of Requeſt or Licence (and not under the Great Seal) are contrary to Law; and that the Perſons travelling with ſuch Letters are Vagabonds, and puniſhable as ſuch by Virtue of the ſeveral Statutes made for the Puniſhment of Vagabonds and ſturdy Beggars; and that the Perſons ſo offending will be proſecuted upon the Statutes in that Caſe made and provided.

South-Sea Houſe, Sept. 23, 1725.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at the South-Sea Houſe in Broad-ſtreet, London, on Thurſday the 30th Inſtant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, being one of the Half yearly Courts appointed by the Charter, and to chuſe a Committee of Seven to inſpect the By-Laws.

London Aſſurance-Houſe, Sept. 24, 1725.

The Court of Directors of the London Aſſurance Company do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at their Houſe in Cornhill, on Friday the 30th of this Inſtant September, at Eleven in the Forenoon, to conſider of a Dividend.
